Many of the shade trees need trimming and it is not yet too late to have it done.
A typical and amusing letter from "Gus" is left over until next week. It's a good one.

William McHaffie, the colored shoemaker, died suddenly of heart disease on Saturday.
The Western Union Telegraph messengers, Messrs. Jenkins and Wallace, have been fitted up with uniforms.

"Jerry" the well-known rat terrier belonging to Mr. Louis Morris is dead, having been poisoned.

The Council should take immediate steps to keep the streets sprinkled. The dust is almost unendurable on Main and Liberty streets.

The electric signal line connecting the stand pipe and the water works pumping station has been completed.

Sheriff Sanders returned from Seneca City several days since. The man under arrest proved not to be Commodore Council, although answering to the description.

Water was pumped into the mains yesterday for the first time, and a few breaks discovered, that are attributed to carelessness of the workmen when laying the pipes. About twelve feet of water was pumped into the stand pipe. The final test will not be made for a week at least. The pumps work perfectly.

The pony rail-road on last Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Jewish Lecture room was won by Mr. Frank O'Donnell. The pony having been purchased from Mr. H. Harby for less than first cost, the net proceeds were more than $50.

Sheriff Williams, of Kershaw, came down on last Wednesday night and returned home, taking Warren Robinson back with him next morning. Robinson has been wanted for three years for highway robbery, and was arrested near Elliot's a short time ago.

The Simonds National Bank is authorized to receive subscriptions for the new 44 per cent. bonds of the State of South Carolina. These bonds being exempt by laws from all State, County and City taxes, (except for schools), are regarded by many persons as a desirable investment. Parties proposing to purchase can obtain particulars by calling at the Bank.

Prof. A. Savastano, the well known Artist and Photographer of the City of Charleston, is giving a series of calcium light exhibitions in this city, of views embracing a tour around the world. Most of the pictures were taken by the professor on a tour made by him, and he accompanies the exhibition with a descriptive lecture. He will be at the Opera House to-night and to-morrow night. Admission 25c. Reserved seats 50c.

One of the most useful articles we have seen recently is the self-pouring coffee pot now being sold by C. H. McWhirter in this city. After a thorough test, a representative of the Watchman and Southern has no hesitation in saying that besides the convenience of self-pouring, the arrangement is the simplest and most economical we have ever seen.

Commodore Council, the Ruffing Creek murderer, seems to be obedient to the taste of those widely divergent locations, but as yet no one has been able to take him into custody. The most reliable reports appear to indicate that he is hiding around in the Catfish neighborhood where he has relatives. A reward of $75 is offered for his arrest, although the readers of this paper have no means of knowing that fact, as the police of the Watchman and Southern are not to the taste of those who have the giving out of such official advertisements. Extent of circulation is not an object with Tillamite officials. No one disputes the statement of any printed in the county.

An Easter Marriage.

Mr. E. I. Reardon, assistant postmaster of Sumter, celebrated the joyous Easter Sunday in a most becoming way by taking unto himself a wife, the lovely Miss Louise W. Block, fourth daughter of Mr. H. W. Block, of this county. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Holland, at his residence.—News and Courier.

The assistance of the best local talent has been secured and several fine voices from Charleston have been promised for the occasion. The chairman of the committee says that he is confident that this concert will be the best yet held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Easter at Sumter.

At the Episcopal Church in the morning, the lay-reader, Capt. W. R. Delgar, conducted the service, neither the Rector nor his Assistant being in the city.
The church was simply but very tastefully decorated, the chancel especially presenting a lovely appearance with its altar covered with flowers, and its rich altar-cloth exquisitely embroidered.

At the evening service the Rector preached to a good congregation, and the children of the Sunday School presented their musical offerings, which will go to the General Board of Missions.

High Mass was celebrated in St. Lawrence Catholic Church at 10.15 o'clock by the Rev. Father McNell. The floral decorations were the most beautiful for years, and the musical selections were appropriate to the sacred and joyful character of the day.

The Methodist Church was decorated in exquisite taste, the flowers, vines and mottoes all harmonizing in one picture of Springlike beauty. The missionary entertainment in place of the regular evening services was attended by a large crowd. Many were unable to gain admission, the church was so crowded. All present enjoyed the exercises.

Rev. Dr. Beattie, of Columbia, filled the Presbyterian pulpit both morning and evening. In the morning an unusually large congregation was present and the communion of the Lord's Supper was celebrated.

Rev. E. E. Ayres preached in the Baptist Church, at morning and evening services. In the morning, communion services were held and Mr. Ayres was assisted by the pastor Rev. C. C. Brown.

Easter at Stateburg.

The good people of the Church of the Holy Cross, Stateburg, enjoyed this year the unusual privilege of service both on Good Friday and Easter. The Rev. John Kershaw officiated on both days. On Friday the congregation was very good, but on Sunday the church was full—every seat was occupied. The church was elaborately and beautifully decorated for Easter, and the music was excellent. A large number received the Holy Communion. One of the features of the day was the procession of the children with banners, singing a carol, after which they placed floral offerings at the foot of a large cross on the outer-chancel floor. This was well done and very effective.

A large number of Sumter people were at the service, having driven across country for the purpose. Visitors were also noticed from Wedgefield, Hagood, Bradford Springs, and Clarendon.

Fire.

The old Hauser house, located near the A. C. L. depot on Graham Street, occupied by Mrs. Kennedy as a boarding house and owned by Mr. E. W. Hurst, was destroyed by fire on Sunday morning. The structure was between 3 and 4 o'clock, but the fire was already so far advanced that efforts to save the house or contents were useless. Nothing was saved except an organ, the books and family being glad to escape without stopping to save a change of clothing.

Miss Annie Kennedy was painfully injured by jumping from a window. Several who occupied rooms on the second floor escaped by sliding down the piazza pillars.

A grout man whose name the writer has not learned went into the burning building to rescue a baby forgotten by its mother. He brought the baby out unhurt, but had his own feet severely burned.

The house was valued at $3,000 and was insured for $2,250. Mrs. Kennedy estimates her loss at $650 to $700 and had no insurance.

Bank of Sumter Statement.

The Quarterly Statement of the Bank of Sumter, for the quarter ending March 31st, 1893, for the year, but at this time when money is always tight, the showing is excellent.

Homicide at Pinewood.

Two Michigan lumbermen, Joe Grover and Jack Miller, got into a row at Pinewood on Monday afternoon and Grover shot Miller eight times, killing him. Whiskey is said to be responsible for the difficulty.

Reception.

The Irving and Philomath Societies of the Sumter Institute gave a Reception to their friends in the Institute parlors this evening.

Centennial Furman.

Mr. McDonald Furman has succeeded in arousing the public interest in the people in Sumter to the point of celebrating the centennial of the birth of Judge John Belton O'Neil. His suggestion met with unanimous approval and at a mass meeting of citizens it was decided to celebrate the occasion on the 10th instant. Mr. Furman has been invited to be present as the guest of the city.

Complimentary Dance.

The dance given on last evening, complimentary to a number of young ladies now visiting in the city, was well attended and greatly enjoyed, as it was the first social event of the past Lenten season. Several visitors from other places were present, and all were as joyous and gay as the bright Spring, now just coming forth from the lap of Winter.

Runaway.

A pony owned by Mr. C. W. Kingman while being driven down Main Street by Dudley Cook on last Thursday afternoon, became frightened and ran away, upsetting the road cart to which it was attached and throwing Cook out. Mr. G. N. Marshall's horse became frightened and ran up Republic Street into Washington Street, damaging the buggy and running into a team belonging to a man named Williams, injuring one of the mules. Mr. H. Schriver's little daughter, Elberta, narrowly escaped being run over but was rescued by Mr. B. G. Gibson.

The Poll List.

When the law was enacted requiring the annual publication of the poll lists of the various counties it failed to specify who should pay the bill. The Attorney General, upon request, gave opinion that the bill should be paid out of the school fund as that fund was the one benefited. The School Commissioners of the various counties complied with this construction of the law and paid the bill. Mr. DuRant differed from the opinion of the Attorney General and refused to pay the bills when presented and in this position was sustained by superintendent of Education Mayfield. Mr. Mayfield advised a friendly suit be instituted for the purpose of obtaining an order of court. This was done and Judge Hudson issued an order directing the County Commissioners to pay the bill, thus sustaining Mr. DuRant's construction of the law.

Jonas Galluchat, a negro of the Heriot's X Roads section met his death in a peculiar and unusual manner on last Friday night. A dog killed him by accidentally discharging a gun.

Galluchat and several others were sitting at the supper table when a dog jumped a rabbit "crazy." Glen Sumner went out to shoot the rabbit and failing to do so returned and lent the loaded gun against a chair. In a few minutes the dog ran into the house, knocked the gun down discharging it, the load entering Galluchat's head and just above the left eye. He died almost instantly.
